

VANISHING GIRL AND CAGE

The magician's assistant enters a cage that rests on a table. Both the cage and girl are then covered with a cloth. The cage and girl are then hoisted off the table and the table is wheeled offstage. Suddenly the magician grabs hold of the cloth and pulls it away. Both the girl and cage vanish into thin air!

This magic illusion provides a strong punch that leaves audiences breathless! The cage and portions of the table are constructed out of the finest architectural grade aluminum and wooden luan. Both are built with longevity in mind. Due to the fact that the audience sees the cage hoisted into the air, and the table wheeled offstage before the girl and cage vanish, the illusion leaves audiences with no explanations! This is an outstanding prop and it is an illusion that is sure to please any audience. $7500 FOB.
